

- Componente Curricular: LÍNGUA INGLESA
- Professores: Elisabete S. dos Santos, Letícia de S. de Oliveira e Patrícia Alles
- Turmas: 211 - 212 - 213

- Simple Present and Simple Past;
- “Be used to”, “Get used to” and “Used to”;
- Prepositions of Movement and Place;
- Quantifiers: a lot of, lots of, many, much, little, a little, few and a few & Countable and Uncountable nouns;
- Conditional: Zero and First Types & In case, Unless, As long as, Provided;
- Modals: have to, don't have to, should, shouldn't; must, can't, (don't) need to;
- Comparative and Superlative Forms of Adjectives;
- Intensifiers and Mitigators with Comparatives and Superlatives;
- Conjunctions: Although, In addition to, As well as, Despite, However.

- Componente Curricular: LÍNGUA INGLESA
- Professora: Elisabete S. Santos
- Turmas: 221 - 222 - 223

- Use of Gerunds;
- Passive voice;
- Comparative forms of adjectives and adverbs;
- Expressing purpose: for, to, in order to and so (that) and Discourse markers: of course, surprisingly, naturally, nevertheless, however, in contrast, later, subsequently, meanwhile, in addition, what's more, also;
- Modals: should(n't), have to, have got to, must, ought to;
- Expressing changes: Present Continuous & Present Perfect.

- Componente Curricular: LÍNGUA INGLESA
- Professora: Elisabete S. dos Santos
- Turmas: 231 - 232 - 233

- Verb tense review: Simple Present, Simple Past, Present and Past Perfect Simple and Continuous;
- Use of Gerunds and Infinitives;
- Passive Voice;
- Reported Speech;
- Modals: Ability, Obligation, Permission, Necessity and Degrees of Certainty;
- Conditionals: Zero, First, Second and Third Types & Provided, Providing, As long as, Unless.

